A. C. PATTERSON, Manager.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1893.

The editorial management of the

Manitoba Free Press has been transferred from Mr. W. E. Lutton

to Mr. Molyneux St. John. Mr.

Lutton has for the past twenty-one years controlled the policy and business interests of the Free Press,

and has brought it to its present

standing, where it ranks among the first papers in the Dominion. Mr.

Lutton, in a letter to the Tribune, tells a most pitiful story, and attributes his deposition to the stand

he took in what he considered the interests of Manitoba and the North-West Territories, rather than yield to the dictum of the C.P.R.

Company, who he admits now hold

a controlling interest in the paper.

It is reported that the stock for a new paper has been subscribed, and that Mr. Lutton will be editor-in-chief. If the undertaking proves successful, Mr. Lutton's attention will, for a time at least, be divided between Mr. Greenway and the C.P.R., his greatest enemy. The announcement of the new management of the Free Press that the paper is not intended to be the organ of a political section or of any commercial enterprise does not point in the direction intimated by

Mr. Lutton, and until the Free

Press espouses the cause of the C.

P.R., when that company's interests

and those of the Territories conflict,

we cannot look upon it as the organ

of the company.

AGRICULTURAL SHOW AT

QU'APPELLE.

The eighth annual exhibition of the South Qu'Appelle Agricultural

Society took place on Thursday last,

and was favored with very fair weather. As usual, the Immigration Hall was utilized for the display of grains, roots, vegetables,

dairy produce, ladies' work, etc.,

and the horses, cattle, sheep and pigs were shown on the prairie

close by. The ring where the horses were paraded was much larger than last year, and was certainly a great improvement. The horses were judged by Messrs. A. Webb, W.

Capling and F. Boone. The most delicate part of their work was

when the general purpose horses

were brought before their notice,

and they were by far the most closely contested. There was quite a parade of general purpose teams

in harness, and after close inspection the red ticket was given to the one owned by Mr. A. Dundas.

All the classes were represented by good animals, but in some of them

a little keener competition would have been more satisfactory. There was considerable fun when the saddle ponies were on exhibition,

owing to the riders indulging in manoeuvres not usually witnessed in the show ring. The trial for the best saddle horse over hurdles provided more amusement for the spectators than was anticipated, for,

although the jumping was not by any means what could be looked for from old practitioners, there was unlimited diversion provided when the competitors made energetic but vain endeavors to get their horses

to clear the fence.

The cattle, sheep and pigs on exhibition were of choice quality,

and the satisfactory criticisms of those well calculated to give an opinion were unstinted. To abide by the rules of the society, the prizes for some of the thoroughbred cattle are withheld, owing to the pedigrees not being produced on

Town & Country Cullings.

—A large quantity of wheat has already been marketed at this point.

—Mr. D. S. McCannel went to Regina on Friday and returned on Sunday.

—Mrs. Thomas, of Brantford, Ont., has been here for a few days visiting her sister, Miss Middlemiss.

—Our sidewalks and water courses have been greatly improved under the supervision of Mr. F. Bell.

—There is a probability of a dancing class being started in town shortly with a professional dancer as instructor.

—Bishop Burn returned on Tuesday from the Estevan district, where he had been in connection with the work of the diocese.

—The Bourns brothers, of Springfield, finished threshing last week, and their crop consists of 8000 bushels of wheat and 2000 bushels of oats.

—Mr. A. C. Paterson arrived here on Tuesday from North Portal, and will remain a few days before returning to his duties as Collector of Customs.

—The Methodist Church is being renovated, consequently there will be no service held there next Sunday. A union service will be held in the Presbyterian Church at 7 p.m.

—There is to be a large sale of stock, belonging to Mr. Wm. Brody, at Qu'Appelle on Friday, the 20th inst. There are ten horses and upwards of fifty head of horned cattle, all of good stamp.

—It was only necessary to hear and inkling of the fact that the Star Almanac of Montreal is to be published early in November to create a tremendous demand for it. We hear the Star Almanac this year is to consist of four hundred and fifty pages.

—A meeting of the Executive Committee of the South Qu'Appelle Liberal-Conservative Association will be held in the Court House on Saturday, Oct. 14th, at the hour of 2 p.m. The president will be glad if all the members will make a point to be present.

—We regret to learn that Mr. A. D. Dickson, of this town, met with an accident when hunting recently which might have led to serious results. The horse he was riding slipped into a badger hole and Mr. Dickson was thrown violently, remaining unconscious for some time. He was at once conveyed home, and we are pleased to hear he is likely to be about again soon.

—As stated in our last issue, it is the intention of the Hon. Mr. Foster, Finance Minister, and the Hon. Mr. Angus, Secretary of Agriculture, to visit Qu'Appelle on the 21st inst., for the purpose of interviewing the people in reference to the proposed revision of the tariff. Up to the present we have not heard of any steps being taken in the way of forming a committee to confer with the honorable gentlemen. We would therefore suggest that a public meeting be called at once, and a committee selected whose duty it will be to prepare and lay before these gentlemen a list of all questions affecting our interests. This is an opportune time for the agricultural interests of this, the wheat field of Canada, to be thoroughly represented, so that we will be protected as well as the eastern manufacturer. The Government has decided that a revision is necessary, and that the tariff will be revised at the next sitting of Parliament. Let the people of Qu'Appelle assist in the revision and see that their interests are not overlooked.

—Mr. Harry Amas and Miss Alice Maud Mary Glover took upon themselves the solemn obligations of matrimony on Wednesday evening last, in the Methodist Church. Both young people are closely connected with the church, and the event caused the inhabitants of that persuasion to turn out in exceptionally large numbers. The prayer meeting held prior to the ceremony was much larger than usual, and their numbers were considerably augmented as the time approached when the nuptial knot was to be tied. The relatives of the bride occupied the front portion of the church, and the remaining accommodation was taken up by the numerous acquaintances of the contracting parties. The bride, who was attired in cream cashmere, appeared leaning on the arm of her father, and accompanied by Miss F. Glover, who attended as bridesmaid. Mr. Amas had as his groomsmen Mr. C. Bailey, and the Rev. E. T. Carter presided over the service of binding vows. When the two had been declared one, the organist discoursed appropriate music, and soon after the church was empty. The young couple have since been overwhelmed with the good wishes of their many friends.

—Mr. J. A. C. Blackwood, of Blackwood, is disposing of the whole of his stock and furniture. The sale is advertised for Tuesday, Oct. 24th.

—Mr. Reekie, who has had pastoral charge of the Qu'Appelle Baptist congregation for some time has returned east to resume his studies.—Tribune.

—The Canberry News printing plant was destroyed by fire on Thursday last. The paper will start up again in an enlarged form with new type and machinery.

—A large number of new books arrived on Monday for the Presbyterian Sunday School library. They have been judiciously selected, and are admirably suited to Sunday reading.

—W. L. Clark was tried for the desertion of his employment on the Canadian Co-operative Colonization Company's farm at Qu'Appelle on Thursday last. The case was adjourned till Tuesday, when J. H. Fraser, J.P., dismissed it with costs against the complainant.

—A despatch from London says the emigration returns for the past month show a reduction of 432 in the number of colonists leaving for Canada. The total number of emigrants to leave for the expired nine months of this year is 22,504, an increase of 2,291 over the same period last year.

—It was reported in Winnipeg on Friday last that Mr. L. A. Hamilton, land commissioner of the C.P.R., was severing his connection with that company, and that the land department would be closed and combined with that of the other departments. The report, however, has not been confirmed.

—Sunday's train from the east brought Mr. W. B. Sheppard from Winnipeg. He was accompanied by Mr. W. C. Furnivall, of Barnstable, England, the confidential agent of Lord Brassey, who has been looking over his lordship's various estates and interests on the other side of the line. Mr. Furnivall will inspect the farms here, and probably do some shooting.

—There were 700,000 people on the World's Fair grounds on Monday last. It was "Chicago Day," and the number is the greatest yet recorded, and breaks the one-day record at Paris by an overwhelming majority. The total number of paid admissions since the opening of the fair is 16,492,070. The greatest day at Paris was 397,150, and at Philadelphia 217,526.

—Two of the British farm delegates (A. J. Davis and J. Roberts), who were through here a short time ago, were suddenly recalled to England before the completion of their tour which the other delegates hope to end by the 28th inst. What they have seen of the country has given them a very good impression, and they are satisfied that the North-West is the right place for young energetic farmers with small capital who will adapt themselves to the conditions of the country.

—There was a social gathering of Sabbath school teachers, scholars and members of the choir of the Methodist Church in McLean's Hall on Friday evening last. The chief object of the gathering was to make a presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Amas who were married on the previous Wednesday. The room was full when Mr. J. R. Brown, superintendent of the Sunday school, took the chair, and read an address, which stated that in recognition of the untiring zeal of Mr. and Mrs. Amas as teachers in the Methodist Sabbath school they were presented with a tea service and rocking chair, and the hope was expressed that they would have many years of happiness and the blessing of God follow them through life. After the presentation, tea was partaken of, the remainder of the evening being devoted to readings, recitations, songs, etc.

—Mr. S. R. Edwards took part in the various competitions at the annual prize meeting of the Assiniboia Provincial Rifle Association held at Regina on Friday and Saturday last, and acquitted himself most creditably. He won the following prizes: First in ex-President Mowat's match, prize, a silver water pitcher and cup and $10 in cash; third, eighth and ninth in the ladies' match, the total value of prizes being $9.25; second in the Lieut. Governor's match, prize, $6; sixth in ex-President Reed's match (handicapped 13 points), prize, $4; and the gold medal presented by the association as the first in the grand aggregate, as well as a few minor prizes in the extra series. The trophy presented by ex-President Mowat is to become the property of the member winning it twice. Mr. Edwards carried off the prize this year by 84 points, being one point more than it has been won by before.

BIRTH.
STEWART—On the 5th inst., at Qu'Appelle, the wife of Mr. A. J. Stewart, of a son.

MARRIAGE.
AMAS—GLOVER—On the 4th inst., at the Methodist Church, Qu'Appelle, by the Rev. E. T. Carter, Mr. Harry Amas to Miss Alice Maud Mary Glover, both of Qu'Appelle.

TEACHERS' CONVENTION.

The following is the programme of the autumn meeting of the Central Assiniboia Teachers' Association, to be held here on Thursday and Friday, October 19th and 20th:—Thursday—President's address; appointment of committees, etc.; "English grammar," R. Williams, Wide Awake; "The management of children," Miss Gillespie, Saltoun; "A lesson in fractions," D. S. McCannel, Qu'Appelle Station; "Education: what is it?" Rev. H. Holmes, M.A., St. John's College, Qu'Appelle Station; "Difficulties in teaching the simple rules of Arithmetic," Alex. Skene, Fil. Hills; "Biblical," F. G. Marwood, Rose Valley. Friday—Amendment of Constitution; "The teacher's influence in the formation of character," Rev. G. F. McCullagh, Indian Head; "First lessons in history," Prof. Goggin, B.A.; "Reading," T. T. Grimmett, Indian Head; "The teaching of literature to third class candidates," Prof. Goggin, B.A.; "Bookkeeping," J. F. Middlemiss, Wolsley; Question Drawer; Reports of committees, resolutions, etc. On Friday evening at 8 o'clock, Prof. Goggin, B.A., will deliver a lecture entitled "Success." All teachers, trustees, and others interested in educational matters, are invited to attend and take part in the proceedings.

NORTH PORTAL.

The new town of North Portal is situated on the International boundary line at the crossing of the Soo railway, twenty-three miles south-east of Estevan. The land in this section is a clay loam, and has every indication of being of the best quality. A number of settlers have taken up homesteads on the Canadian side of the line, and the prospect of a large immigration next spring to the American side is said to be good, this portion of North Dakota being the only available land open for settlement along a railway. No boom has yet struck the place. The railway companies have done a lot of work and have extensive yards and other necessary plant for a divisional point. The depots on either side are commodious, and in addition to the accommodation necessary for railway offices, have Customs offices and bonded warehouses. Two staffs of Customs officers are here who look after the interests of their respective Governments. There is an opening for a general store and an hotel, particularly the latter. At present there is by no means sufficient accommodation for the men who live here.

CALGARY'S NEW STATION.

The work on the C.P.R. depot and dining hall at Calgary is all completed except the heating. The depot is 42x77, Swiss chalet style of architecture, with an enormous roof of slate from the quarries at New Westminster, B.C. The building is of Calgary stone throughout, all the lumber used in construction being from the B.C. Mills and Trading Company, of Vancouver. On the ground floor of the depot there is a large general waiting room, ticket office, lavatories, gentlemen's waiting room and ladies' waiting room, complete with wash rooms, lavatories, toilets, mantles, and mirrors. Then comes a baggage room and an express office. The upper flat contains a telegraph office, mail clerks' room and express messengers' rooms. The dining hall and station are connected by a large covered way about seventy feet in length. The dining hall is 42x75 feet, and is also of the Swiss chalet style of architecture, built of stone throughout, roofed with slate, and finished with B.C. lumber, cedar and fir in natural wood, and contains a large dining room, office and lunch room, also kitchen, pantries, complete for dining hall purposes. The cost of these buildings is in the neighborhood of $30,000, inclusive of the hot water heating. The contractor is Mr. Thomas Tompkins.

A VETERAN DEAD.

Toronto, Oct. 6.—A long and useful life of a brave seaman and soldier was brought to a close yesterday by the demise of Capt. Robt. Douglass Stupart, R.N., who has for a number of years resided in Toronto. He was a son of Admiral Gustavus Stupart, who fought under Nelson and was in constant service during the long period of French wars. When the Crimean war broke out Stupart sailed under Admiral Sir Charles Napier to the Baltic, and while there attained the rank of commander.

EFFECT OF THE MINERS' STRIKE.

MONTREAL, Oct. 9.—The strike in England is evidently creating a coal famine there. A steamer has been chartered in Montreal to take a cargo of 2,500 tons of coal to Liverpool at a private rate. Vessels coming out here are all arriving late, and this is accounted for by the bad quality of coal they are forced to accept. They are paying $12 a ton for it in England.

A MOUSE RAN DOWN HER THROAT.

The Hartford Current says: A woman living in the vicinity of Edwin Cray's drug store recently threw up from her stomach a full-grown mouse. The woman had not been feeling well during the morning, and about 11 o'clock complained to one of her neighbors who found her laboring considerably in her efforts to throw something off her stomach. The neighbor, however, laid the cause of the trouble to something else, and when a physician was called the patient was told there was nothing serious in the matter. During the evening, however, some medicine was obtained from the drug store which acted as an emetic, and the mouse then made its appearance.

How the mouse could have gained access to the stomach was at first a mystery. The woman is a heavy sleeper, and the only reasonable explanation is that she fell asleep with her mouth open and the mouse bent on exploring every unknown region suitable for a hiding place, ran down her throat, producing the next morning the feeling of nausea which caused the medicine to be sent for.

CROFTERS IN THE NORTH-WEST.

Toronto Globe: Prof. Wallace, professor of agriculture in the University of Edinburgh, who is at present visiting in this city, when interviewed by a Globe reporter expressed his surprise at the remarkable progress of Manitoba and the North-West. Fourteen years ago Mr. Wallace visited this country, and then formed great hopes for the future of the country, but the growth of Winnipeg and the general advancement of the country have far exceeded his most sanguine expectations. He visited the North-West this time at the request of the Canadian Government, who, through the advice of Sir Charles Tupper, invited him to inspect the country, particularly the Crofter settlements. Mr. Wallace deems that these settlements have been a failure. Of course there have been difficulties to contend with, as in all new settlements, but the mere fact that a party of fishermen can get along at all speaks volumes for the country as a field for settlement. In the Killarney settlement, where the land possessed by the crofters is very valuable for grain growing purposes, many of them have raised loans from money lenders on it and have thus got into debt, but in the Saltoots settlement, where the crofters devote themselves almost exclusively to stock raising, cultivating only sufficient grain for their own consumption, they have so far kept their heads free from encumbrance. Mr. Wallace was somewhat guarded in his answers to questions concerning the reason for the discontinuance of the crofter assisted emigration by the British Government, as he did not want to enter upon political questions in his present position. It was inferred, however, from his conversation that in his opinion if the Unionist party should soon come into power in all probability the settlements would be again encouraged by the home government.

EXCITING SCENE IN THE CHURCH CONGRESS.

LONDON, Oct. 6.—Father Ignatius an Episcopalian monk, who made a tour of the United States three years ago, set the Church Congress at Birmingham in an uproar yesterday by denouncing publicly Rev. Charles Gore, one of the authors of "Lax Mundum." Gore rose to read a paper as contemplated in the programme of the day. Before he opened his mouth Ignatius sprang to his feet and exclaimed, "I protest against this. That man is a denier of Christ. He ought not to be heard here." Cheers and hisses followed. The Bishop of Worcester, who presided, told Gore to proceed, and ordered Ignatius to be seated. Amidst great disorder Ignatius shouted that he would not yield unless he received permission to speak later. The Bishop assented. Ignatius sat down and Gore read his paper. Then Ignatius rose to reply, but he was ruled out of order. Cheers, hisses, groans and protests, greeted this decision of the Bishop. Every attempt of Ignatius to speak caused a renewal of the uproar. He appealed to the Bishop, but the latter ignored him. The Bishop of Worcester said the meeting could not listen to attacks of its own church upon a matter. At this Ignatius became greatly excited and declared that the Bishop had uttered a falsehood. There was another uproar. Many demanded that Ignatius be silenced. Finally the Episcopal crank withdrew, and the programme was proceeded with.

THE CATTLE EMBARGO.

Word comes from over the water that the British Board of Agriculture has removed the cattle embargo against Norway. This shows that despite the agitation for the total exclusion of foreign cattle, Canada may expect similar removal to follow the continued exemption from disease. The writer of the dispatch says it is earnestly hoped that the Canadian Government will resist the movement for removal of quarantine against the United States as such a course would be fatal. Scotch farmers continue to agitate for free Canadian cattle entry or at least British expert enquiry in Canada, while British graziers find that the exclusion of Canadian stock makes lean stock too dear to feed at a profit. The Canadian cattle landed at Glasgow recently were better adapted to keeping than for slaughter.

DEATH OF MRS. LEACOCK.

News was received on Friday last of the death of Mrs. E. P. Leacock, which occurred the previous evening in Toronto, where the deceased had resided for the past few months. Mrs. Leacock, who left Winnipeg with the British farm delegates, was in the neighbourhood of Calgary when the sad news was forwarded. The deceased was the eldest daughter of Mr. Vickers, head of the Vickers Express Co. She was a grand daughter of Mrs. Susanna Moody, a Canadian writer of considerable ability. Mrs. Leacock was for many years a resident of Manitoba, and was held in the highest esteem by a large circle of friends. She took a deep interest in the political affairs of the country, and contributed a number of articles to the press and magazines which were of exceptional merit.

A LARGE LUMP OF COAL.

There is now in Chicago, from the mines at Roslyn, in Washington state, a lump of coal twenty-four feet in length, five feet eight inches in width, four feet eight inches in thickness, and weighing forty-one thousand pounds. This is nineteen thousand pounds more than the Hocking Valley lump, and fifteen thousand pounds more than the great block sent over from England.

INTERNATIONAL YACHT RACES.

Thursday last saw the first of a series of five races between the English yacht Valkyrie and the American yacht Vigilant. The races are to decide which is entitled to the international championship and the American cup. This cup was won forty years ago by the United States, and has been held continuously ever since. Lord Dunsraven, a well known English sportsman, for several years past has undertaken the task of humbling the pride of the Republic, but so far without success. The Vigilant has twice vanquished her deep-draught opponent, and it is more than likely the cup will remain with the Americans at least another year.

A BRAKEMAN CRUSHED.

Brakeman William Fawcett was killed about 2 o'clock Sunday morning by falling off the top of an M. and N.W. train approaching Yorkton. His body was found in the centre of the track. Conductor Walmesley says he must have been killed instantly. Fawcett leaves a wife at Minnedosa, and has a brother at Beausejour. This is only the second fatal accident that has occurred on the Manitoba and North-western railway during its history.
